

Manifestos of the 4th Republic

About ResearcherNG

ResearcherNG is an independent research and strategic advisory firm, exploring the data shaping geopolitics, policy and public life in Nigeria. The work of ResearcherNG is sufficiently divided to impact Individuals, public and private businesses, local and International Organizations, Government parastatals and Academics by providing concise and understandable data which can aid in policy making, interventions and other actions that require data. In this publication, we attempt to track the policies and milestones of administrations since the 4th Republic, when Nigeria became a democracy, with the intent of showing what commitments have been delivered on.

WHY THIS MATTERS

Manifestos and election promises, which are usually described with different epithets like “Transformation Agenda” and “Next Level” have become a common feature of electoral campaigns in Nigeria. Candidates and parties attempt to use these manifestos to influence electoral outcomes, align voters, or shape voter views about candidates. But beyond outlining visions and policies pre-election, the actual implementation of these policies or visions post-election is very crucial.

Tracking and documenting the progress presidents have made over time will help policy makers understand the issues that exist, and that continue to linger. Also, through this publication, we intend to start the process of creating a baseline of scorecards for individuals who hold political office in Nigeria to measure their progress in executing policy and to hold them accountable. In our review, we assign score cards which are color coded to determine the level at which manifesto promises were fulfilled.

The Profiles

Olusegun Obasanjo

1999- 2007

President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria

Umaru Musa Yar'adua

2007-2010

President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria

Goodluck Ebele Jonathan

2010-2015

President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria

Muhammadu Buhari

2015-2019

President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria

What We Found

A stylized illustration of Olusegun Obasanjo, the former President of Nigeria. He is depicted from the waist up, wearing a blue and white patterned headwrap, orange-rimmed glasses, and a blue and white striped traditional Nigerian garment (baju). He has a slight smile and is looking towards the viewer. The background is a light teal color with a subtle pattern.

Olusegun Obasanjo first served as a military leader in Nigeria between 1976 to 1979 and later became Nigeria's president in 1999 on the platform of the PDP. Popularly described as a nationalist and diplomat, the Obasanjo administration in his first tenure sought to make Nigeria economically prosperous, reduce poverty, as well reduce government corruption. His first tenure was marked by the creation of the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC) as well as debt pardons worth $18 billion from Paris and London. He faced criticism for human rights abuses during his administration as well as attempting to extend presidential term limits and battled impeachment.

Olusegun Obasanjo
1999–2007
*President of the Federal Republic
of Nigeria*

Manifesto

• Nigeria's Debt Profile: To tackle Nigeria's foreign debt, estimated at more than 30 billion US Dollars in 1999

• Internal Conflict: To solve the unrests in the oil-producing areas

• Agriculture: To boost food production.

• Security: To maintain law and order with particular reference to armed robbery

• Corruption: To eliminate the culture of corruption in public offices

Matching Actions

Nigeria received debt pardons that relieved $30 billion of Nigeria's total $36 billion external debt

President Obasanjo created the NDDC(Niger Delta Development Commission) and started an amnesty program.

President Obasanjo resuscitated the National Fertilizer Company in Kaduna and (Onne) Port Harcourt.

President Obasanjo instituted the Independent Corrupt Practices Commission (ICPC) and the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC).

Manifesto

Drug Trafficking: To tackle drug trafficking and organized crime, including fraud, which he said had dented the country's image abroad

Power: To revamp the National Electric Power Authority.

Regional Security: To reach a peaceful solution, through dialogue, to the conflict in Sierra Leone, where Nigeria deployed more than 10,000 troops

Economy: To revamp the economy To formulate new policies that will advance the prosperity of the nation

Matching Actions

Nigeria deployed more than 10,000 troops to Sierra Leone, and deployed more troops to DRC, Liberia, and Sudan for peace keeping.

In his second tenure he signed the Greentree agreement with Cameroonian president Paul Biya, putting an end to the Bakassi peninsula dispute.

•President Obasanjo, in 2000, inaugurated the Oil and Gas Sector Reforms Implementation Committee (OGSRCC) and the Oil and Gas implementation Committee (OGIC). The policy recommendations made by this committee formed the basis of the Petroleum Industry Bill that is still being debated as at 2020.

•President Obasanjo and the Minister of Finance, Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala, executed a radical economic reform program, and the National The The Obasanjo administration attempted to the National Economic Empowerment and Development Strategy (NEEDS) to revamp the national economy, boost productivity and increase social amenities as well as rollback poverty.

•The implementation of NEEDS ensured the deregulation and privatization of many industries, particularly the Nigerian Telecommunications Industry (NITEL).

•Nigeria's GDP under the Obasanjo administration grew from 3% in 1999/2000 to 6% until President Obasanjo left Office.

•Nigeria's foreign reserves rose from $2 billion in 1999 to $43 billion on leaving office in 2007.

A stylized illustration of Olusegun Obasanjo, the 12th President of Nigeria. He is depicted from the waist up, wearing a dark blue traditional Nigerian attire (baju and sokoto) with a white collar. He has a white headwrap with a black pattern and wears orange-rimmed glasses. He is smiling slightly and has his right hand on his hip. The background is white.

2nd Term

After achieving a loan pardon for Nigeria in his first tenure, President Obasanjo in his second tenure focused on improving health and electricity. He fulfilled some of his first tenure manifestos in his second tenure in office. He launched the first National Health Insurance Scheme (NHIS) in 2005.

Olusegun Obasanjo
1999– 2007
*President of the Federal Republic
of Nigeria*

Manifesto

Matching Actions

Electricity: To improve Electricity

Started the National Integrated Power Project (NIPP) to add 7,600MW to the national grid by August 2008.
Created the Electric Power Sector Reform Map of 2005.
Began the migration from analogue to digital transmission of television signals.

Security: To ensure that Nigerians feel a greater sense of security in themselves and their property

Healthcare: To provide improved hospitals and healthcare delivery

In 2005, president Obasanjo launched the first National Health Insurance Scheme (NHIS) in order to ease the access to basic health care services.

Agriculture: To attain a high level of Food Security

The Cassava Initiative resulted in an increased level of cassava production. The agriculture sector recorded an annual growth rate of 7%.
Ensured the partnership of international bodies with Nigeria's ministry of Agriculture to execute development projects.

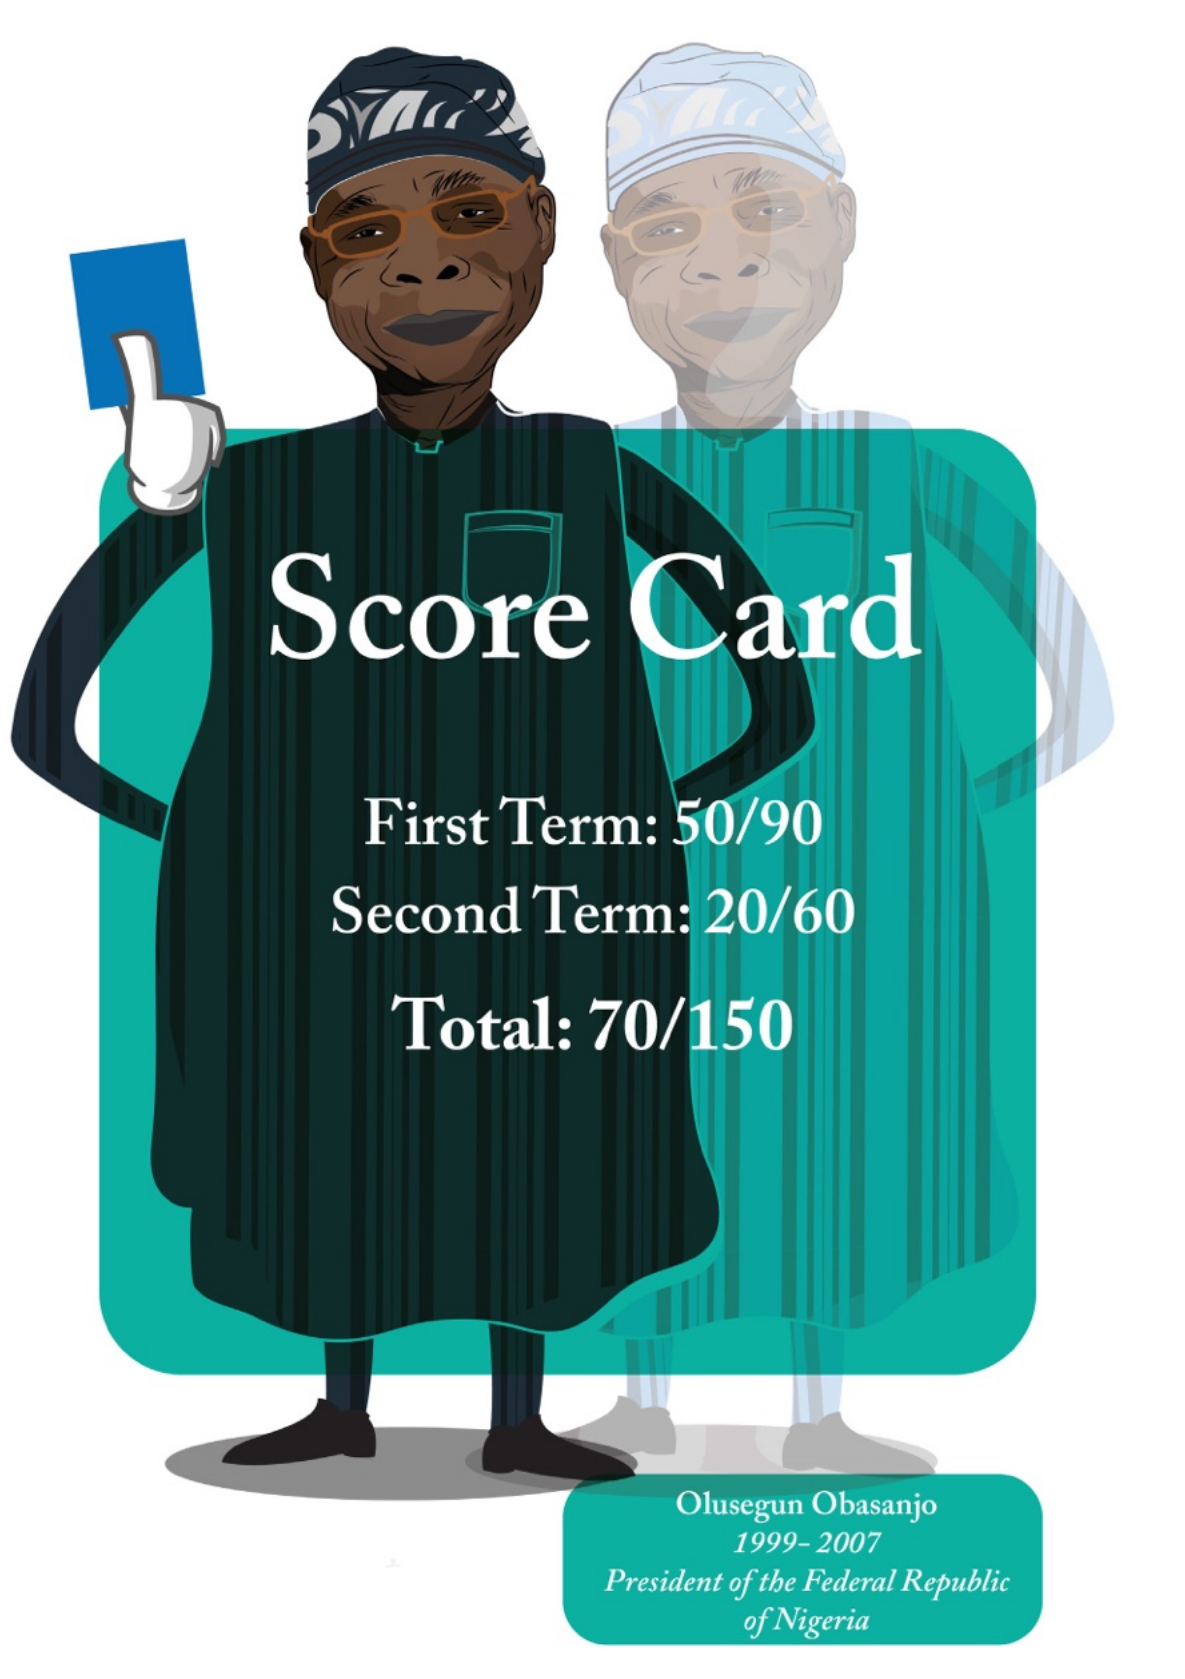

Education: To get the educational institutions fully quantitatively and qualitatively operational.

Infrastructure: To construct new roads and mend dilapidated ones.

A cartoon illustration of Olusegun Obasanjo, the former President of Nigeria. He is depicted from the waist up, wearing a dark green traditional Nigerian agbada with a small pocket on the chest. He is also wearing a dark blue and white patterned headwrap and orange-rimmed glasses. He is holding a blue card in his right hand, with his index finger pointing upwards. Behind him is a semi-transparent version of the same character, wearing a light blue headwrap and a light blue agbada. The background is a solid teal color.

Score Card

First Term: 50/90

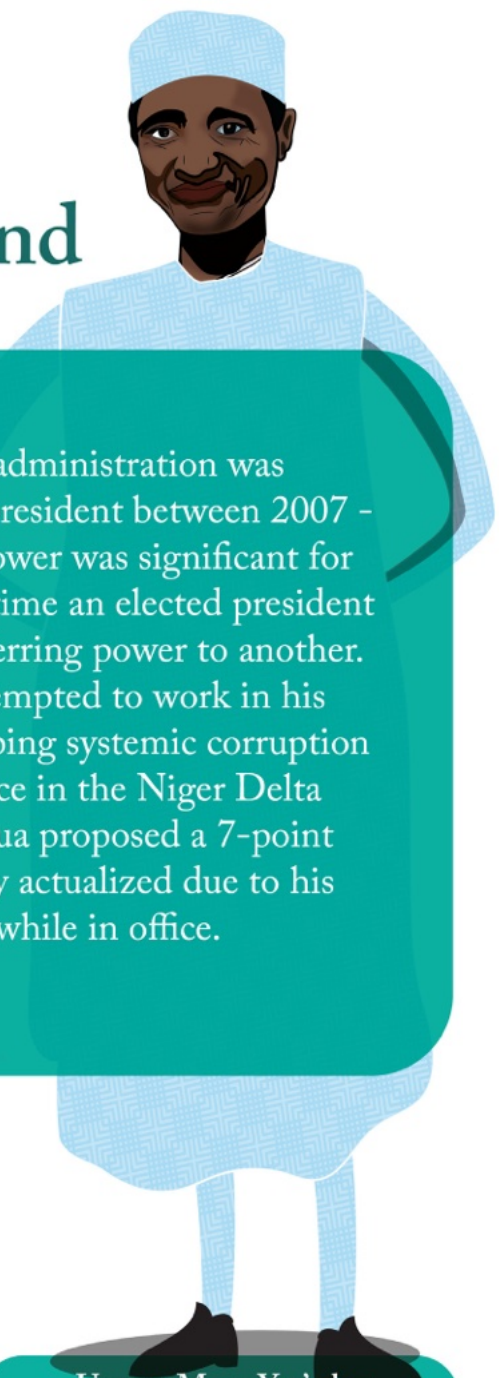

Second Term: 20/60

Total: 70/150

Olusegun Obasanjo
1999- 2007

*President of the Federal Republic
of Nigeria*

What We Found

A stylized illustration of Umaru Musa Yar'adua, the 10th President of Nigeria. He is depicted from the waist up, wearing a light blue traditional Nigerian cap (fila) and a matching patterned robe. He has a dark complexion and a slight smile. The illustration is positioned behind a large teal rounded rectangle that contains text.

President Yar'adua's administration was short-lived. He served as president between 2007 - 2010. His coming into power was significant for Nigeria, as it was the first time an elected president was democratically transferring power to another.

President Yar'Adua attempted to work in his predecessor's shoes by curbing systemic corruption and quelling the violence in the Niger Delta region. President Yar'adua proposed a 7-point agenda which was barely actualized due to his health situation while in office.

Umaru Musa Yar'adua
2007-2010

President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria

Manifesto

Critical Infrastructure:

To improve power supply with a targeted generation of 10,000MW by 2010 in order to facilitate industrialization

To develop Rail, Road, Air and Water transportation and facilitate movement of persons, goods and services

Matching Actions

President Yar'adua discontinued the NIPP, resulting in a negative impact on the electricity sector as well as job losses. He created the Electricity Master Plan in 2008

Niger Delta

To completely overhaul the region and its physical infrastructure as well as empower its people.

President Yar'adua created the Ministry of Niger Delta and allocated funds to it.

He granted Amnesty in 2009 and this reduced the insurgence of the Niger Delta militants till 2016

Food Security

To enhance agricultural and water resources are inadequate supply for local consumption and export

Electoral Reforms: To address the issues that affect the quality and credibility of elections in Nigeria.

President Yar'adua established a presidential electoral reform committee to look into the legal factors, social and political institutions and security issues that affect the quality and credibility of elections and to make recommendations. The committee recommended creation of an electoral offenses commission and a parties registration agency. This committee produced the popular Uwais report.

Manifesto

Land Tenure and Home Ownership:

Review of the Land use laws to facilitate proper use of the Nation's land assets for socio-economic development; and citizens' access to mortgage facilities.

Matching Actions

President Yar'adua sponsored an executive bill known as the Land Use Act (Amendment) Bill 2009, but this bill was never signed into law.

National Security and Intelligence:

To give adequate attention to the provision of security for lives and property

Wealth Creation:

To initiate the process of diversifying the nation's revenue base, and increased production capacity, to ensure job provision

Human Capital Development:

Reform the education sector to improve skills and enhance standards.

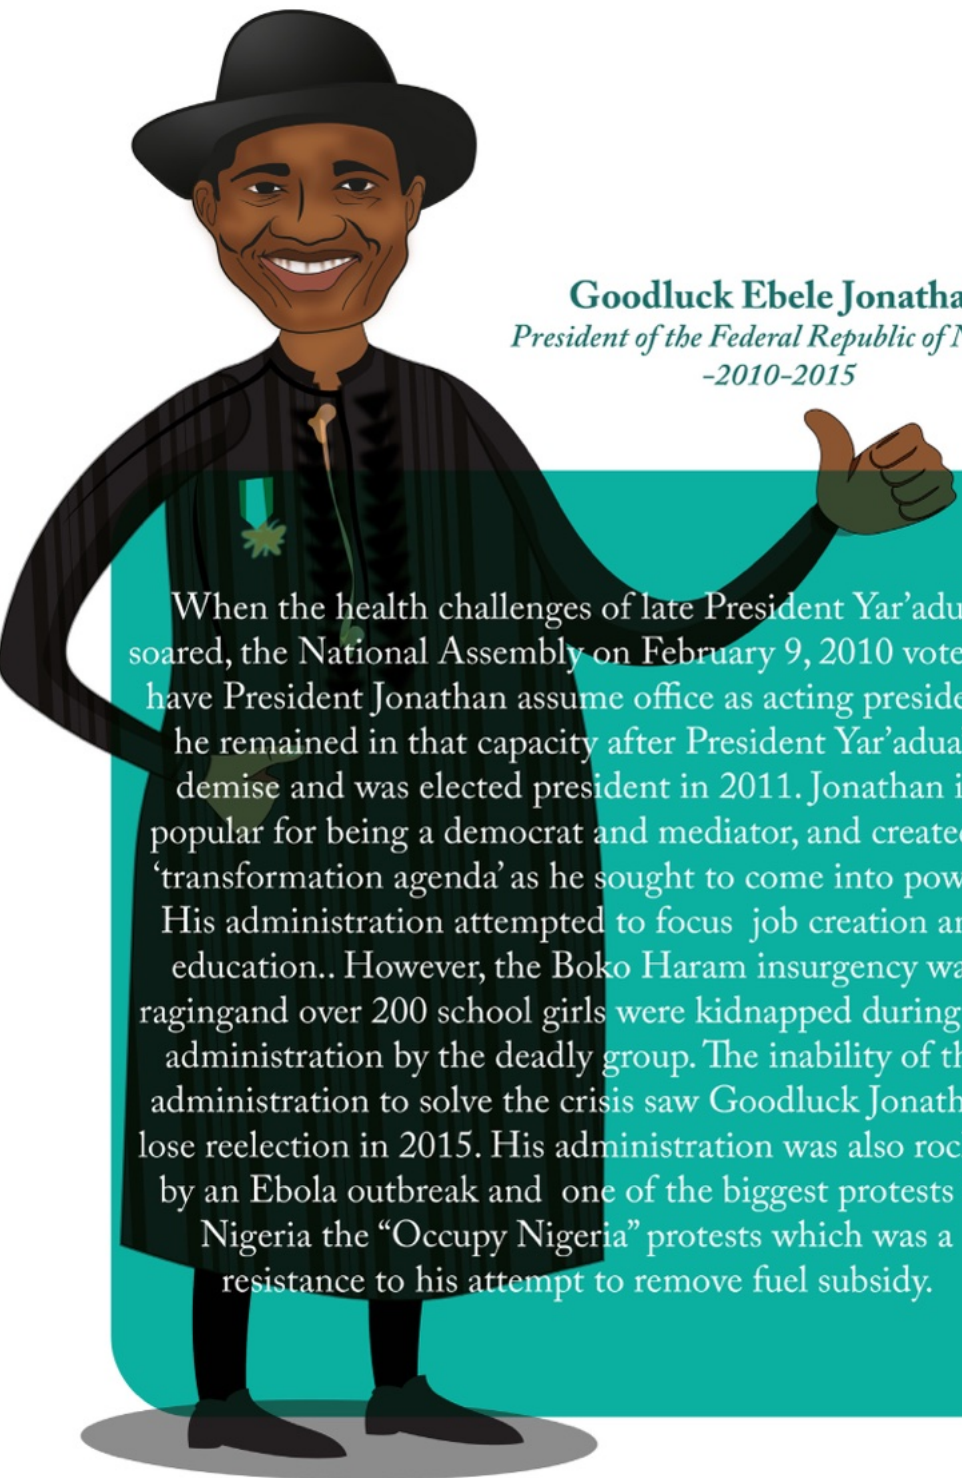

Score Card

20/80

Umaru Musa Yar'adua
2007-2010
*President of the Federal Republic
of Nigeria*

Goodluck Ebele Jonathan

*President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria
-2010-2015*

When the health challenges of late President Yar'adua soared, the National Assembly on February 9, 2010 voted to have President Jonathan assume office as acting president, he remained in that capacity after President Yar'adua's demise and was elected president in 2011. Jonathan is popular for being a democrat and mediator, and created a 'transformation agenda' as he sought to come into power. His administration attempted to focus job creation and education.. However, the Boko Haram insurgency was raging and over 200 school girls were kidnapped during his administration by the deadly group. The inability of the administration to solve the crisis saw Goodluck Jonathan lose reelection in 2015. His administration was also rocked by an Ebola outbreak and one of the biggest protests in Nigeria the "Occupy Nigeria" protests which was a resistance to his attempt to remove fuel subsidy.

Manifesto

Job Creation:

To create 5 million jobs annually and Implement a youth employment safety net support program that includes conditional cash transfer and vocational training

Matching Actions

The Subsidy Reinvestment and Empowerment Program (SURE-P) was created in 2012.

About 5,075 persons were trained and equipped with skills and vocation under the scheme across the country

Public Expenditure Management:

- To promote a culture of accountability
- To align recurrent expenditure with non-oil revenue and devote a substantial proportion of oil revenue to capital expenditure.
- To fast track the operationalization of the National Sovereign Wealth Fund (NSWF) whose bill was recently passed by the National Assembly.

President Jonathan continued with Steve Orosaye's Committee that was created in the Yar'Adua's administration to "review the re-structuring of MDAs and personnel composition of the federal public service" and renamed it Presidential Committee on the Rationalization and Restructuring of Federal Government Parastatals, Commissions and Agencies. He also created the Alhaji Adamu Fika committee to review the implications of Steve Oronsoya report.

As of 2014, they had not begun the implementation of the recommendations from this committee.

Justice and Judiciary:

- To improve the capacity and efficiency of service delivery in the judiciary.
- To eliminate all forms of corruption in the justice system
- To achieve greater independence of the judiciary in terms of funding

President Jonathan signed the Administration of Criminal Justice Act, 2015, into law and to ensure the speedy trials of corrupt persons in Nigeria.

The Strategy for the Implementation of Justice Reforms in Nigeria' document was developed. A sensitization workshop on the implementation of the Freedom of Information Act was executed.

More Judges were appointed to the Supreme Court.

Manifesto

Diplomacy:

To strengthen Nigeria's foreign policy and economic diplomacy.

Legislature: To create policies that will facilitate the development of effective and public responsive legislature that is proactive in its legislature duties, but conscious of its partnership with the executive and judicial arms, constitutionally.

Labour and Productivity:

To implement the National Action Plan on Employment Creation (NAPEC), to create 5 million jobs annually, over a space of 3 years.

Education:

- To create greater access to quality education
- To promote enrolment into primary education
- To build infrastructure (classrooms) and enhance the efficiency and capacity of teachers.

Matching Actions

The president drove Foreign Direct Investment up from $24 million in 2007 to $35 billion in 2014.

The Almajiri Education programme was commissioned in Sokoto state, Girls Education Programme was commissioned in 8 states, and 9 new private and federal universities were licenced.

The administration sponsored construction and furnishing of 105 blocks of 2, 3, and 4 classrooms, 2 examination halls, 4 community libraries, 4 generator houses, 9 computer centres, 3 boreholes, and 15 toilets in 15 states of the federation through the help of MDGs, and granted license to 135 innovation and vocational enterprise institutions to encourage technical/vocational education and training.

Scholarship award was also 'approved' as counterpart funding for foreign students, teachers who were deployed to public primary schools in 34 states and funds were made available for teachers' capacity building in all 36 States of the country.

58 billion naira was granted in three phases to universities, polytechnics and colleges of education across the federation to encourage their development as centres of excellence.

School curriculum were reviewed in line with national development objectives and entrepreneurship centers were established in tertiary institutions to help in linking education with work and developing the entrepreneurial capacity of graduates, universities (miscellaneous provision) (amendment) act 2012

Manifesto

Health Care:

To improve healthcare delivery

Agriculture and Food Security:

To enable it play its role of ensuring food security and massive job creation for Nigerians

Matching Actions

President Jonathan signed the National Health Care Bill in December 2014. This bill grants the average Nigerian access to basic health care services via the Basic Health Care Provision Fund. Half of the fund is allocated for providing essential vaccines and consumables for Primary Health Care Centers, maintenance of equipment, facilities and logistics. The fund was also designed for the development of primary health care (PHCs) human resources, and to extend the PHCs to the Nigerians living in hard to reach communities. The other 50% is for the National Health Insurance Scheme created to provide health services for children under five, the elderly, pregnant women and people with disabilities.

The administration also launched the Saving One Million Lives Program (SOMLP).

Some SURE-P Maternal and Child Health Project (MPH) saw a 12% increase in the likelihood for a pregnant woman to receive skilled birth attendance during delivery

This was at the tail end of the GEJ tenure. Thus, it saw little changes. However, the doctor population ratio increased from 0.183 in 2010 to 0.383 in 2013.

The GEJ administration created the Agricultural Transformation Agenda, and worked closely with the Minister of Agriculture, Akinwumi Adesina to create a risk sharing system for Agribusinesses - NISRAL. Nigeria became the highest producer of Cassava in the world, with production at 45 million tonnes per annum. Food importation was reduced by 40%

Bank loans to seed and fertilizer companies increased from N3.5 billion in 2012 to 20 Billion in 2013

The administration focused on 11 commodity value chains; collaborated with International Institute for Tropical Agriculture (IITA) to run the Agricultural Transformation Agenda Support Program (ATASP), which;

Enabled direct sales of fertilizer from the plant in Onne, Rivers State to fertilizer companies (this happened in the first 90 days of the minister's appointment).

Developed a database (with all their biometric details) of 4.5 million farmers in Nigeria.

Created an electronic e-wallet system for farmers to enhance seed and fertilizer distribution.

Manifesto

Matching Actions

Manufacturing:

- To promote private sector investments through the creation of an enabling environment and subsequently increase local manufacturing

In 2014, the GEJ administration launched two projects; the National Industrial Revolution Plan (NIRP) and the National Enterprise Development Programme (NEDEP). The NIRP supports the development of a competitive advantage in the industrial sector, while NEDEP focuses on SMEs. The ultimate goal of the NIRP was to increase the contribution of the

Priority Policies for Infrastructure Development - Power:

- To revamp power generation, distribution and transmission facilities to give 6,000 MW electricity at minimum.
- To complete the projects under National Integrated Power Projects, NIPP

To employ the use of alternative sources of energy - coal, solar, wind- to generate 13,000 MW

President Jonathan privatised the Power Holding Company of Nigeria by enacting the Electric Power Sector Reform Act of 2005 as promised. But his administration did not meet up with the promises he made about increasing the amount of electricity generated, transmitted, and distributed.

Oil and Gas:

- To promote investment in the downstream and upstream activities of the oil and gas industry. Also, to reduce pollution by reducing gas flaring

The Petroleum Industry Bill (PIB) which was introduced to the National Assembly in 2008, was revamped and presented to the National Assembly in 2012 under the Jonathan administration but it was rejected by the majority yet again.

Manifesto

Information and Communication Technology:

To create a Knowledge Based Economy (KBE) 10-year strategic plan, focusing on sustained human capacity development in ICT

Niger Delta:

To develop policies that will ensure peace and stability which will foster sustainable socio-economic development in the region and eventually reduce the high incidence of poverty, high rate of unemployment and level of insecurity

Transportation:

To build and improve the states of roads, railways, sea ports, airports, and inland waterways.

Macroeconomic Policy

To ensure greater harmony between fiscal and monetary policy, review the budget process to provide greater clarity.

Matching Actions

- President Jonathan created a separate ministry for Information and Communications Technology.
- He executed the Nigeria National Broadband Plan (2013 - 2015) which took the nation's broadband penetration from 10% to 31%.
- Number portability across various networks started in 2013.
- Mobile money was launched in 2011.
- In December 2011, the NigComSat-1R geostationary communication satellite was launched in space to replace the NigComSat-1 that got missing in orbit due to power failure in 2008.

About 50 roads were completed or neared completion by the end of President Jonathan's tenure. He began the construction of the Abuja-Kaduna railway. The Benin-Ore road and Abuja-Lokoja road construction saw significant progress. However, these achievements did not match his promised measure.

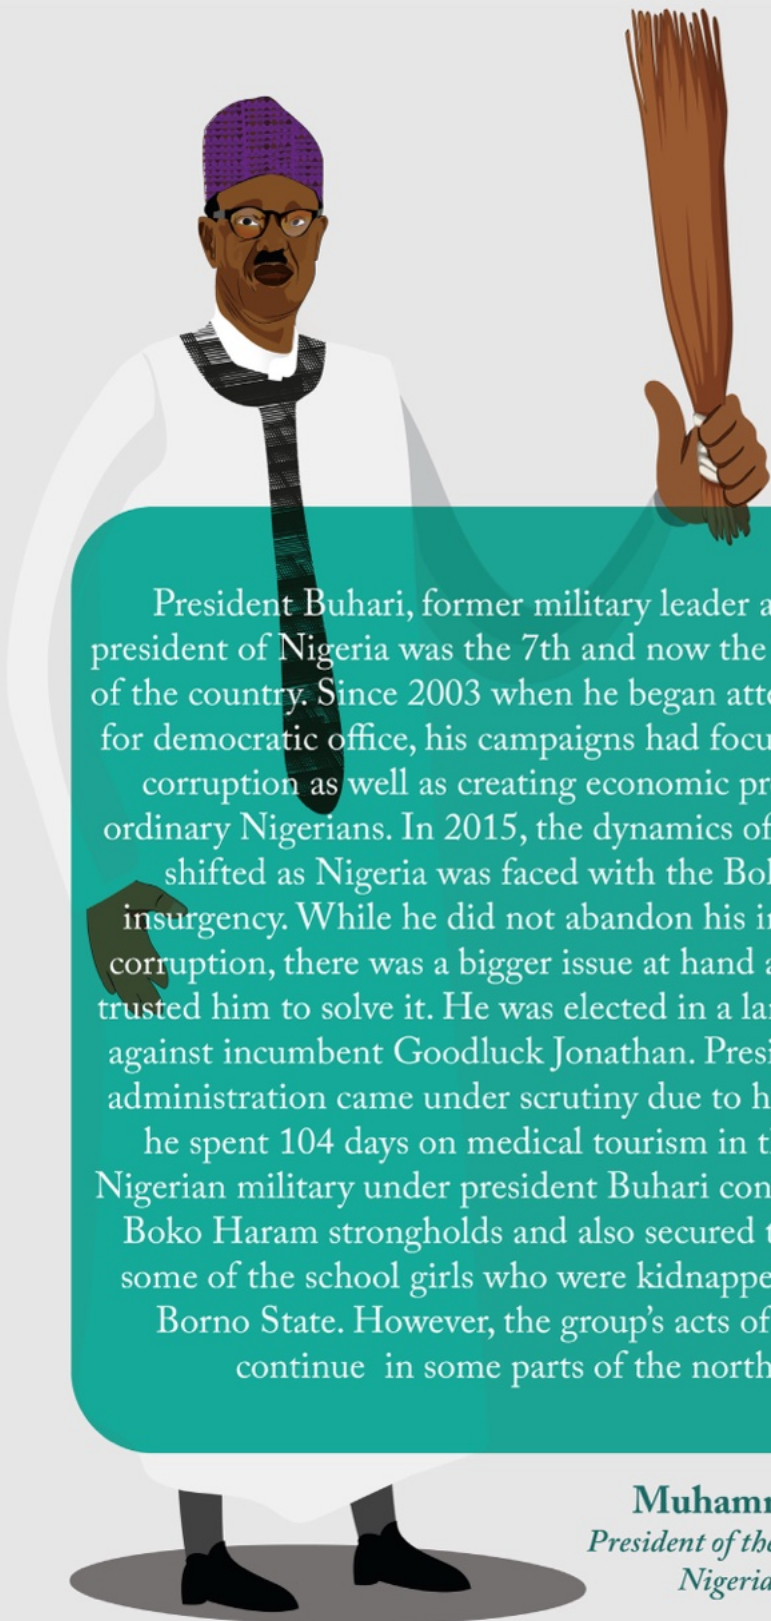

A cartoon illustration of Goodluck Ebele Jonathan, the President of Nigeria from 2010 to 2015. He is depicted as a smiling man with dark skin, wearing a black fedora and a dark, patterned traditional Nigerian garment (bata). He is holding a blue card with a white number '1' on it in his right hand. The background is a large, rounded teal rectangle.

Score Card

70/160

Goodluck Ebele Jonathan
*President of the Federal Republic
of Nigeria -2010-2015*

An illustration of President Muhammadu Buhari. He is depicted from the waist up, wearing a white traditional Nigerian agbada with a black patterned collar and a purple fila (cap). He has a mustache and wears glasses. His right hand is raised, holding a large, brown, bundle-like object. The background is a light gray. A large teal rounded rectangle is positioned in front of him, containing text. At the bottom of the image, his legs and black shoes are visible.

President Buhari, former military leader and current president of Nigeria was the 7th and now the 15th president of the country. Since 2003 when he began attempting to run for democratic office, his campaigns had focused on ending corruption as well as creating economic prosperity for ordinary Nigerians. In 2015, the dynamics of his campaign shifted as Nigeria was faced with the Boko Haram insurgency. While he did not abandon his intent to curb corruption, there was a bigger issue at hand and Nigerians trusted him to solve it. He was elected in a landslide victory against incumbent Goodluck Jonathan. President Buhari's administration came under scrutiny due to his health after he spent 104 days on medical tourism in the UK. The Nigerian military under president Buhari conquered a lot of Boko Haram strongholds and also secured the release of some of the school girls who were kidnapped in Chibok, Borno State. However, the group's acts of terror still continue in some parts of the north east.

Muhammadu Buhari
President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 2015-2019

Manifesto

Medical Tourism:

To place a ban on government officials going abroad for medical treatment

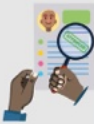

Asset Declaration:

To mandate government officials to publicly declare their assets and liabilities

Job Creation: To create 3 million jobs annually.

- To ensure the creation of 720,000 jobs by the 36 states in the country per annum - 20,000 per state.

Infrastructure Asset:

- *To revive the Ajaokuta Steel Company.

- *To reactivate minimally performing Refineries to optimum capacity.

To renovate airports and build at least one functioning airport in each of the 36 states.

Matching Actions

This was not implemented by all the public/political officers

- President Buhari completed and commissioned the Abuja-Kaduna railway service.

- The Itakpe-Warri Railway Line is also now ready for operations and has been commissioned by President Buhari. The construction commenced more than three decades ago and has been completed under his administration.

- Track-laying for the main section of the new Lagos-Ibadan Standard Gauge Railway Line was completed in March 2020, almost exactly three years after Vice President Yemi Osinbajo performed the ground-breaking ceremony for the project, on behalf of President Buhari.

- President Buhari approved $1.96bn to build a rail line that will connect Nigeria to Niger Republic. This has been met with a lot of criticism

Manifesto

Power:

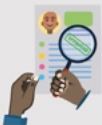

To generate at least 20,000 MW of electricity in 4 years, then to increase it to 50,000MW, and subsequently achieve 24/7 uninterrupted power supply in 10 years.

Police & Scurity:

To recruit and train at least 100,000 officers into the Nigerian police force and establish a Federal anti-terrorism agency.

- To establish a Crime Squad to combat terrorism, kidnapping, armed robbery, militants, ethno-religious and communal clashes nationwide.
- To restore permanent peace in the Niger Delta and other conflict prone areas such as Plateau, Taraba, Bauchi, Borno and Abia.

Youth Empowerment:

To implement an empowerment scheme leading to the employment of 740,000 graduates across the 36 states and the Federal Capital Territory

- To develop a skills an entrepreneurial development programme that will accommodate discharged but unemployed Youth Corps members for 12 months who would be paid allowances.

Matching Actions

Nigeria currently has up to 12,522 MW of installed capacity but generates only 4000 MW.

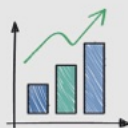

Manifesto

Education:

- To establish a scholarship/free-tuition scheme for pupils who show a strong forte in science subjects at O/Levels to study ICT-related courses
- To ensure free education at primary and secondary level, and for STEM related courses at tertiary level.
- To allocate at least 15% of the national budget to the education sector, and to make substantial investments in training quality teachers at all levels.
- To provide one free meals (to include fruits) daily, for public primary school pupils
- Special Needs: To address special needs education, by building 6 centers of excellence.
- To establish at least six new universities of science and technology with satellite campuses in various states.

Poverty Reduction: To create a program that will compensate the poorest and most vulnerable 25 million Nigerians.

Matching Actions

In 2016, 4% of the national budget was allocated to education. This was 7.4% in 2017, 7.04% in 2018, and 7.05% in 2019

- The school feeding program under the NSIP(National Social Investment Programs) was rolled out across dozens of states with a target of reaching 5.2million children in 28,249 schools in 19 states.
- The president inaugurated the construction of the N18 Billion University of Transportation in Daura, Katsina State in December 2019 (his second term), and this is to be completed within one and a half years.

Manifesto

The Economy:

- To build one of the fastest-growing economies in the world by achieving a GDP growth rate that averages at 10% annually.
- To establish a strong business relationship with Brazil, China, Russia and India and other strategic partners in the world.
- To make Information Technology, Manufacturing, Agriculture and Entertainment key drivers of our economy
- To balance the economy across regions by creating 6 new Regional Economic Development Agencies (REDAs) to act as champions of sub-regional competitiveness.
- To put in place a N300bn regional growth fund (average of N50bn in each geo-political region) to be managed by the REDAs.

Agriculture:

To inject N30bn into the Agricultural sector in order to create more agro-allied jobs by way of loans at nominal interest rates for capital investment on medium and commercial scale cash crops.

Matching Actions

- The Federal Executive Council approved the kick-off of the pre-engineering phase (and payment of part counterpart funding) of the Presidential Power Initiative, a government-to-government deal involving Nigeria, Germany and Siemens AG.
- During his first term in office Nigeria a decline in GDP that resulted in a recession.
- President Buhari assented to the Deep Offshore (and Inland Basin Production Sharing Contract) Act, a landmark legislative reform which will generate hundreds of millions of dollars in extra government revenues annually
- The administration created the Anchors Borrowers Programme where N190 billion has been spent so far. The program has benefited 1.1 million smallholder farmers who have cultivated over 1.3 million hectares of land
- You farm, government buys, guaranteeing a minimum price for selected crops and facilitate storage of agricultural products as and when necessary.

Manifesto

Healthcare:

- Prioritizing the reduction of the infant mortality rate by 2019 to 3%.
- To reduce maternal mortality by more than 70%
- To reduce HIV/AIDs infection rate by 50% and other infectious diseases by 75%
- To Increase the number of physicians from 19 per 1000 population to 50 per 1000
- To Increase national health expenditure per person per annum to about N50,000 (from less than N10,000 currently).
- To upgrade the quality of all federal government-owned hospitals to world class standards within five years.

Infrastructure Assets: Building of up to 4,800 km of modern railway lines – one third to be completed by 2019

To build at least one functioning airport is available in each of the 36 states.

Matching Actions

- This was not achieved as the infant mortality rate was 7.87% in 2015 and 7.57% in 2018
- World Bank data shows that the number of maternal deaths increased from 66,000 in 2015 to 67,000 in 2017
- As of 2020, it's still 1 physician per 2k+ population and mass exodus of health professionals.

•aPresident Buhari completed and commissioned the Abuja-Kaduna railway service.

•The Itakpe-Warri Railway Line is also now ready for operations and has been commissioned by President Buhari. The construction commenced more than three decades ago and has been completed under his administration.

•Track-laying for the main section of the new Lagos-Ibadan Standard Gauge Railway Line was completed in March 2020, almost exactly three years after Vice President Yemi Osinbajo performed the ground-breaking ceremony for the project, on behalf of President Buhari.

•President Buhari approved $1.96bn to build a rail line that will connect Nigeria to Niger Republic. This has been met with a lot of criticism

Manifesto

Home Ownership:

To increase the size of the middle class by at least 2 million new homeowners in the first year of service and subsequently 1 million annually.

Mortgage System:

To create a national mortgage system where interest rates for mortgage loans will be at single digit figures so as to assist prospective homeowners

Conflict Resolution:

To create a National Conflict Resolution Commission whose primary purpose will be to settle civil conflicts in the country.

Development Infrastructure:

To create a national infrastructure development bank that will provide loans for infrastructure development at a reduced interest rate

Life Expectancy:

To raise life expectancy level in Nigeria by 10 years

Matching Actions

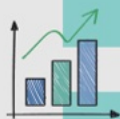

There is already an infrastructure bank that was created in accordance with decree No. 51 of the 1992 constitution. It is led by the private sector. But the federal, state and local governments as well as the National Labour Congress are major stakeholders. Hence it is a private-sector-led finance institution that is sponsored by the government.

Manifesto

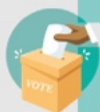

Roads:

To construct 3000km of superhighways with service trunks

Currency:

- To establish a single ECOWAS currency by 2020.
- To stabilize the Naira in the international Market.
- To preserve the independence of the Central Bank.

Elections:

To consolidate INEC so as to reduce, and totally eliminate electoral practices

Sports:

To boost the Nigerian football league to make it as competitive as other national leagues

Niger Delta:

To end gas flaring and ensure sales of at least half of gas produce, within Nigeria.

Matching Actions

In 2018, Members of ECOWAS announced their intent to resume the creation of the single currency. In June 2019, the countries adopted 'Eco' as the name for the new currency. In December 2019, the French speaking member countries announced that the CFA franc would be replaced by the Eco. Nigeria, and other English speaking member countries rejected this in January 2020

Manifesto

Constitutional Amendment: To amend the Nigerian Constitution so as to devolve power, responsibilities and powers to the states to ensure true federalism.

- To amend the Land Use Act in order to create freehold/leasehold interests in land along with matching grants for states to create a nationwide electronic land title register on a state by state basis.

- To require Local Governments to publish their meeting minutes, service performance data, and items of spending over N10M.

- To remove immunity from prosecution for elected officers in criminal case

Identity: Full implementation of the National Identification Scheme.

- To eradicate state of origin, replacing that with state of residence to ensure Nigerians are Nigerians first, before anything else.

Boko Haram:

To defeat Boko Haram and to ensure the rehabilitation and reintegration of repentant insurgents

Matching Actions

A Steering Committee tasked with creating a unified digital identity for Nigerians within 5 years has been formed (In second term).

While Boko Haram still operates in some parts of the north, most of their strongholds have been captured by the Nigerian Military. A programme for the rehabilitation and reintegration of repentant insurgents, via a bill titled; "National Agency for the Education, Rehabilitation, De-radicalization and Integration of Repentant Insurgents in Nigeria" and sponsored by Yobe East Senatorial District, Senator Ibrahim Gaidam (APC) in 2020 was created.

Manifesto

Police & Security: To recruit and train at least 100,000 officers into the Nigerian police force and establish a Federal anti-terrorism agency.

- To establish a Crime Squad to combat terrorism, kidnapping, armed robbery, militants, ethno-religious and communal clashes nationwide.

- To restore permanent peace in the Niger Delta and other conflict prone areas such as Plateau, Taraba, Bauchi, Borno and Abia.

Tackling Corruption: To work with the National Assembly towards the immediate enactment of a Whistleblower Act.

- To ensure that all political office holders earn only the salaries and emoluments determined and approved by the Revenue Mobilization and Fiscal Commission (RMFAC).

Visa Policy: To Simplify the immigration process and drive faster visa processing at points of entry.

Matching Actions

The Whistle-blower policy was launched in December 2016 by the Federal Government and facilitated by the Ministry of Finance

President Buhari approved the Financial Transparency Policy, mandating publication of Public Financial Information through an Open Treasury Portal.

President Buhari ordered a forensic audit of the Niger Delta Development Commission (NDDC) (This happened in his second term)

Nigeria has commenced issuance of Visas on Arrival to all persons holding passports of African countries.

The administration also created a new visa policy aimed at improving the business environment, attracting innovation and FDI, boosting tourism and improving African integration.

Manifesto

Information and Communication Technology:

To create a Knowledge Based Economy (KBE) 10-year strategic plan, focusing on sustained human capacity development in ICT

Matching Actions

International Relations:

To Maintain strong, close and frank relationships within the Gulf of Guinea, the Commonwealth, South Africa and the ECOWAS.

Niger Delta:

To develop policies that will ensure peace and stability which will foster sustainable socio-economic development in the region and eventually reduce the high incidence of poverty, high rate of unemployment and level of insecurity

Transportation:

To build and improve the states of roads, railways, sea ports, airports, and inland waterways.

About 50 roads were completed or neared completion by the end of President Jonathan's tenure. He began the construction of the Abuja-Kaduna railway. The Benin-Ore road and Abuja-Lokoja road construction saw significant progress. However, these achievements did not match his promised measure.

Macroeconomic Policy

To ensure greater harmony between fiscal and monetary policy, review the budget process to provide greater clarity.

Manifesto

Petroleum:

Speedily passing the much-delayed Petroleum Industry Bill (PIB) and ensuring that local content issues are fully addressed.

Civil Service:

Ensuring timely payment of retirement benefits for all pensioned senior citizens and creating a poverty safety net for all aged citizens above the age of 65.

Justice System:

- Reforming and Strengthening the Justice System for efficient administration and dispensation of justice with the creation of special courts for accelerated hearing of corruption, drug trafficking, terrorism and similar cases of national importance.

- To improve the operational and legal mechanisms so that disciplinary steps are taken against proven human rights violations by the Armed Forces.

Entertainment:

To assist Nollywood to fully develop into a world class movie industry that can compete effectively with Hollywood and Bollywood in due course.

Matching Actions

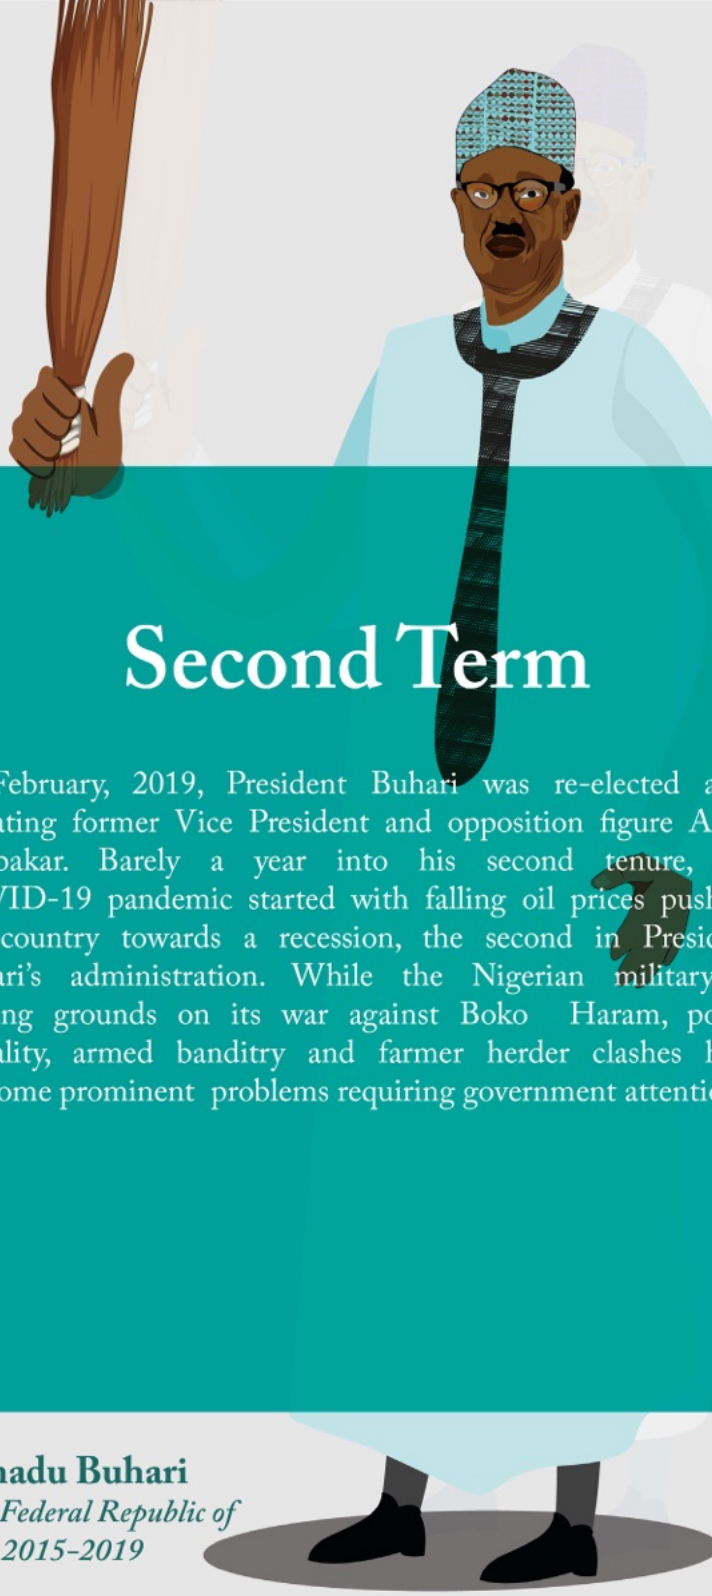

The bill which has passed first reading at the senate (second tenure) intends to help Nigeria boost investment into its oil and gas industry.

So far, feedback for civil servants on salary payment has been positive.

In August 2019, President Buhari had offset more than 42-month pension arrears owed to Nigeria Union of Pensioners

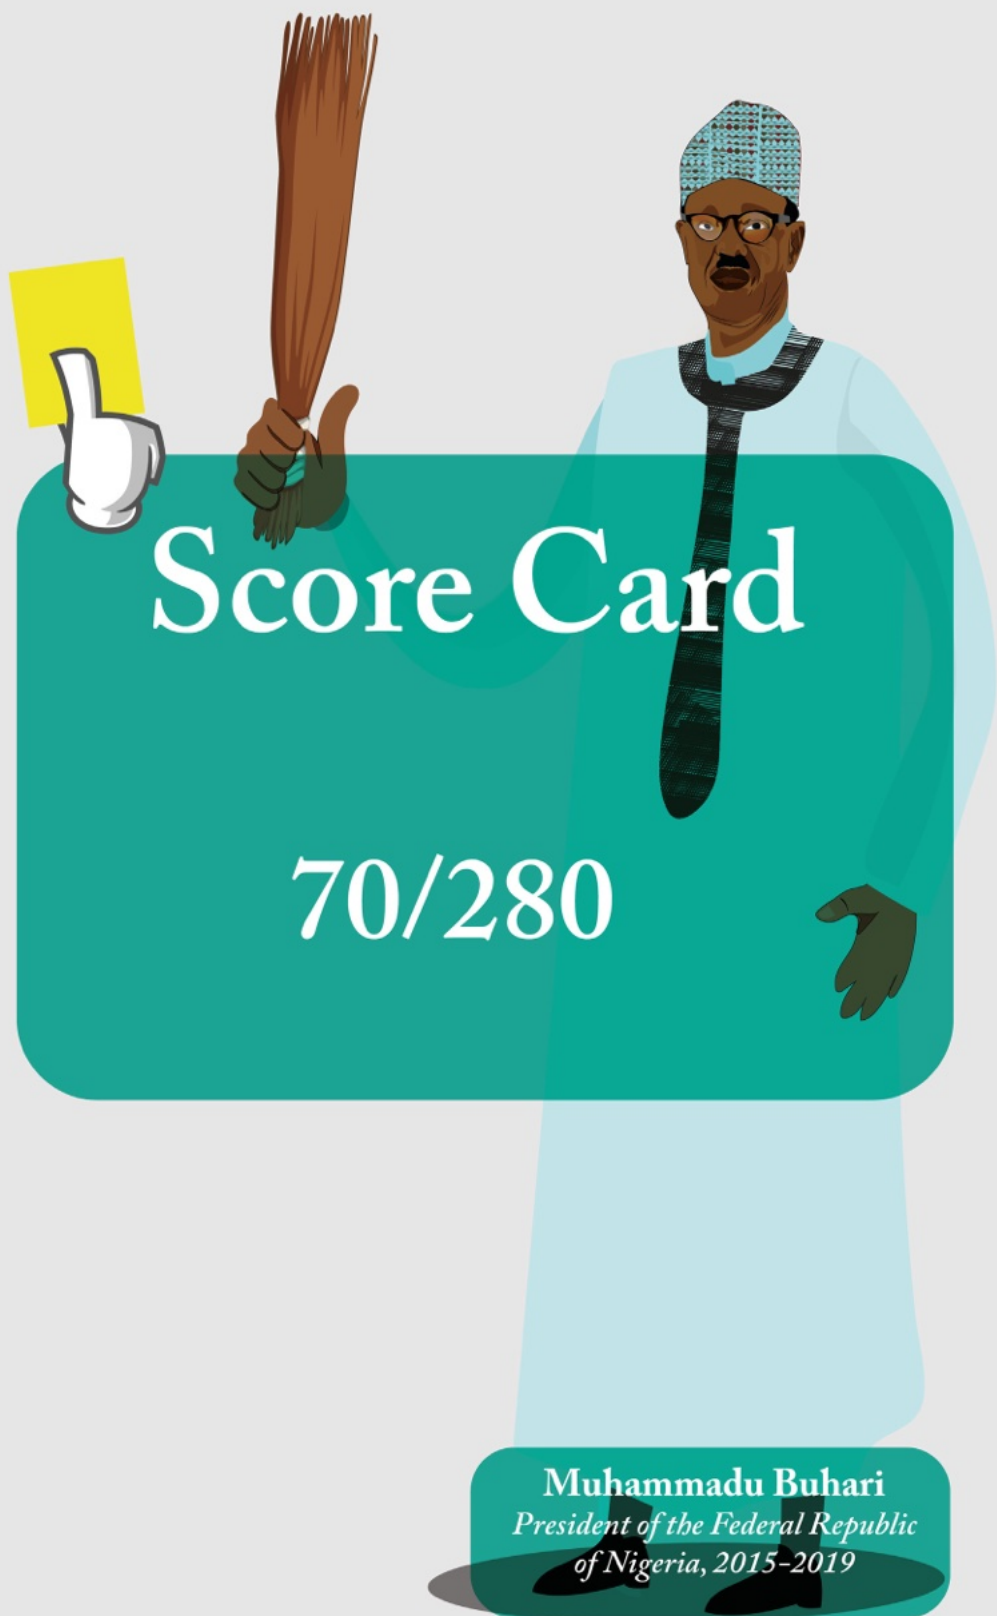

An illustration of President Muhammadu Buhari of Nigeria. He is depicted from the waist up, wearing a light blue traditional Nigerian agbada with a dark patterned tie and a matching blue and white patterned cap. He has a mustache and wears glasses. He is holding a thick, brown wooden staff in his right hand. The background is a light grey with a faint, larger-scale illustration of the same figure. A large teal rounded rectangle is positioned in front of him, containing the title and text.

Second Term

In February, 2019, President Buhari was re-elected after defeating former Vice President and opposition figure Atiku Abubakar. Barely a year into his second tenure, the COVID-19 pandemic started with falling oil prices pushing the country towards a recession, the second in President Buhari's administration. While the Nigerian military is gaining grounds on its war against Boko Haram, police brutality, armed banditry and farmer herder clashes have become prominent problems requiring government attention.

Muhammadu Buhari

President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 2015-2019

Score Card

70/280

Muhammadu Buhari
*President of the Federal Republic
of Nigeria, 2015-2019*

Manifesto

Jobs- The creation of jobs will occur through 5 different ways:

- N-Power will employ 1 million graduates and 10 million people will be equipped with skills under a voucher system in partnership with the private sector.
- To create millions of jobs through Agriculture; with the Anchors Borrowers programme supporting 1 million farmers; with input and jobs; the Livestock Transformation Plan to support with 1.5 million jobs in the livestock production area; the Agricultural Mechanisation Policy to create 5 million jobs in agricultural mechanisation.
- To provide $500 million in funding for the Tech and creative industry to create 500,000 jobs and train 200,000 youths for outsourcing marketing in tech, entertainment, and services.
- To create jobs in the Regional Industrial Parks and Special Economic Zones, and "Next Level of 109 Special Production and Processing Centres (SPPCs)" to boost production and processing by value addition (as well as Tractors and Processors Plan in Each Senatorial District).
- To create 300,000 extra jobs for vendors and farmers by increasing the number of school fed children from 9.2 million to 15 million

Matching Actions

In June 2020, 3 million applications were received for the Batch C of the N-Power Programme.

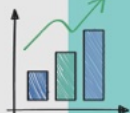

Manifesto

Business, Entrepreneurship and Development

The major point in this plan includes; People Moni Bank, Entrepreneurship Bank, Easing Business Process, and MSMEs clinics. Specifically, the Buhari-Led Administration intends to:

- a) Consolidate the Trader moni, market moni, and farmers moni schemes into the People Moni Bank and reach 10 million Nigerians, an increase from the current 2.3 million beneficiaries.
- b) Support young entrepreneurs with the Entrepreneurship bank. This will offer credit, capacity building, business plan, and provide a tech-enabling environment.
- c) Legislate and enforce deadlines for issuance of government licences and permits, and simplify investments, customs, immigration, trade and production procedures as regards Ease of Doing Business.
- d) Create Next Level for MSMEs (MSME Clinics) which will serve as a centralized shop for business regulatory bodies (CAC, NAFDAC, SON, etc) and will be located in all the senatorial districts.

Matching Actions

President Buhari signed into law a Finance Bill, to reform domestic tax laws, introduce tax incentives for investments in infrastructure and capital markets, and improve the business environment.

President Buhari gave presidential assent to a landmark Bill amending the Companies and Allied Matters Act (CAMA) that allows single member/shareholder companies to be incorporated in Nigeria, alongside other revisions.

President Buhari approved the establishment of a 75 billion Naira Nigerian Youth Investment Fund (NYIF), to provide 5%-interest business loans to Nigerians aged between 18 and 35.

A National Special Public Works (SPW) programme kicked off in the first quarter of 2020. It intends to provide employment and stipends for 774,000 young Nigerians – 1,000 beneficiaries per Local Government) for three months, starting October 2020.

Manifesto

Infrastructure:

The promise for a better infrastructure is targeted at 4 areas; Roads, Rail, Internet, and Power.

- a) To complete the second Niger Bridge
- b) To fix dilapidated roads within Nigeria.
- c) To complete the rails- Lagos-Ibadan-Kano Rail; Eastern Rail (Port-Harcourt-Maiduguri) taking the network through Aba, all South-east state capitals, Makurdi, Jos, Bauchi and Gombe; the Coastal Rail (Lagos-Calabar).
- d) To increase broadband coverage to 120,000km of fibre network around Nigeria, following the implementation of uniform internet charges and internet usage in education, markets, primary healthcare, and business clusters.
- e) To ensure a minimum of 1000 MW new generation annually on the grid and a distribution of 7000 MW based on the Distribution Expansion Programme.
- f) To ensure the use of renewable and clean energy sources in order to energise 300 markets across the country and ensure uninterrupted power supply.

Matching Actions

The Lagos-Ibadan railway line is slated to be launched in September 2020. It will make 16 trips daily

President Buhari approved $5.3 billion for the Ibadan - Kano standard gauge rail line project and also approved the payment of $318m (about N123bn) as counterpart funding to the Chinese Government for the Rail project. The project is expected to be completed by 2023.

During his first tenure, President Buhari activated the Rural Electrification Agency to catalyse the use of off grid energy in order to increase electricity access to rural and underserved communities in Nigeria.

Manifesto

Matching Actions

Human Capital Enhancement- Health care and Education

- To make all the students digitally literate in Science, Engineering, Technology, Arts, and Mathematics
- b) To train all teachers to deliver digital literacy.
- To remodel and equip 10,000 schools annually. The administration intends to achieve these by working with state and local governments since the federal government owns an inconsequential number of schools.
- To provide health insurance for all, using copayments to share the cost between individuals, the private sector and government. The poorest 40% will be exempted from such copayments.

Political Inclusion:

- To ensure 35% of his appointments go to women. This time, this promise does not include a restructuring in the legislature that will ensure this inclusion in the government
- To increase the number of youths that will be appointed to public agencies' boards.
- To create a special mentoring programme in governance with young graduates working with ministers and other senior government appointees”.

BOTTOMLINE

The most common issues that have featured on manifestos since the Obasanjo era is infrastructure and economic reforms. Our review shows a large number of promises from these manifestos have not been delivered to the Nigerian people as none of the presidents passed a 50% mark for fulfilling pre-election promises.

The Yar'adua administration which was the shortest had the most stunted achievements, while the The Obasanjo and Goodluck administration met a fair number of their promises. We noted that a number of President Buhari's first tenure manifestos were met with action in his second tenure. However, the second tenure of his administration will not be receiving a scorecard since he has not completed it yet.

The Ranking

We assigned scores based on how matching actions met proposed Manifestos. We assigned a score of 10 to manifestos that have a “Pass” scorecard, 5 to “Ongoing” and no scores to “Neutral” which refer to manifestos where no matching actions were recorded.

Table Key:

Pass - Actions matched manifesto and created impact.

Neutral 1- actions did not match the manifesto or was not achieved in record time.

Neutral 2-No matching actions were recorded or actions did not match the manifesto or was not achieved in record time.

Ongoing- This was used particularly for the Buhari administration since he is still in power. We also noted that some of the promises made in his first tenure were delivered in his second tenure.

President	Scorecard	Percentage
Olusegun Obasanjo	70/150	46.6%
Goodluck Jonathan	70/160	43%
Muhammadu Buhari	70/280	25%
Umaru Musa Yar'adua	20/80	25%

DISCLAIMER!

This publication does not represent the totality of achievements or policy proposals by these presidents during their administration. It only represents key pre-election promises that were made and post election actions that were taken to deliver on them. The items included in this publication have been gathered from different sources ResearcherNG deems reliable.

